BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY
3 9999 10230 561 0

2350a
.102

Accessions
(9569)

Shelf No.
2350.a.102

FOUNDED 1852
SIGILL. PATRIAE SIT DEUS NOBIS
BOSTONIA
CONDITA A.D.
1630.
REGNANTE DONATA A.D. 1852.
SUSCEPIT
BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

GIVEN BY

Miss Susan Minot Casey
Dec. 24, 1869.

Old Boston Houses

Photographed

from

Sketches in oil painted by

Miss Susan Minot Lane

1881-1882

Boston

1884

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

PHILADELPHIA MEDICAL AND SURGICAL
BOOK COMPANY

Old House in the rear of Moon St, formerly the h
of the Milk family

View of North Square. The first house was the home of Paul Revere, and perhaps his birth-place -

Old House on Charter St, with Christ Church in the distance. In the distance is the In the cellar of house is yet to be seen the arch of a secret pas by which contraband goods were safely landed.

Old Houses on Sheafe St. The house on the corner in the distance was the home of Robert Newman, who hung out the lanterns for Paul Revere.

Rear of Old House on Salem St.

Old House on North St.

Old Boston in 1681.
SMINKAE.

Old House, corner of North St and Murphy's Alley "Probably the oldest house still standing in its original form in Boston" says Mr Drake.